ITCHY SALT RHEUM

Sometimes Called Eczema—Removed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Salt rheum is one of the worst and unfortunately one of the most common of all diseases. How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales, and then does this all over again! Sometimes it covers the whole body with inflamed, burning patches and causes intense suffering, which is commonly worse at night. Local applications may do some good, but they cannot permanently relieve. The disease will continue to annoy, pain and perhaps agonize, until the blood has been purified and the general health improved.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla, the good old reliable family remedy. It has given perfect satisfaction in thousands of cases. Insist on having Hood's Sarsaparilla, for no substitute acts like it. Get it today. (Adv.)

BRADSTREET'S VERMONT WEEKLY TRADE REPORT.

Bradstreet's Burlington office reports that labor is well employed in all lines of manufacture, except grocers. In fact skilled labor is in constant demand, some manufacturers accepting labor which under ordinary conditions would be placed upon the waiting list. This fact has tended to cause some uneasiness. One manufacturing line is at present held up by reason of labor controversies. Several manufacturers have accepted voluntary advances in wages, making some contingent upon present demand for their line of goods. More activity is noted at present in demand for building material than is usual for this period of the year. Building work, however, is not confined to any one locality, but is generally distributed throughout the State.

With the relief afforded by the acceptance of freight by roads connecting with Vermont's railroads, the movement of lumber out of the State has grown in volume. Lumber men and manufacturers in that line report a good demand and every effort is being made to comply with requests for accompanying liberal orders. The furniture manufacturing industry of the State report a large amount of business ahead, but some trouble still is experienced in obtaining raw material. With the manufacturing of dye stuffs, in this country, users of that commodity note a little relief. Woolen mills are well employed, and most of them report sufficient business on hand to keep them fully employed for the remainder of the year. The extraordinary demand for shoddy, which has prevailed up until quite recently is reported not as large, but the present demand is still above normal.

A canvass of the summer hotels and resorts in the State warrants the statement that present indications can be taken as a barometer for summer business at these points, the year's business will be considerably above that of a year ago, if not above what is usually called a normal year. Reports from the country districts show travel and road conditions are rapidly approaching a condition to favor travel. Trade at rural stores is reported as improved. Collections vary all the way from "not good" up to "good," and are classed as a whole as better than fair. One mercantile failure is reported for the week.

COMMITTEE GET MORE TIME

Will Consider Storage and Sale of Gasoline.

City Council Adds a Few Names to Voting Lists and Selects Officials for Presidential Primary Next Tuesday.

There were meetings of both the city council and board of aldermen last evening. The city council meeting was held for the purpose of correcting the check lists to be used for the presidential primary on May 19 and for the appointment of ballot and assisting ballot clerks for the various wards. There were less than a dozen names added to the lists. The board of aldermen met for the purpose of receiving the report from the committee appointed at the last regular meeting to devise a means of solving the gasoline pump question for this city, and at this meeting P. J. Cowles was elected ward clerk in the first ward in place of Clarence White, who has moved from that ward.

The committee appointed was made up of Aldermen A. G. Mansur, J. L. Hall and G. H. Lessor. The report which they submitted to the board last evening explains itself and a copy follows: To the Honorable Board of Aldermen of the City of Burlington: Gentlemen—Your committee appointed to consider and make report as to the placing of gasoline pumps on the sidewalks of the city, and other questions in relation thereto, have leave to report as follows:

The charter provisions do not give the city power to grant licenses for the storage or sale of gasoline by means of pumps placed on the sidewalks or elsewhere. A brief study of this subject leads to the consideration of the whole question of storage and sale of this commodity, namely, the location of tanks or other receptacles for the storage of gasoline by vendors of the same, the facilities for handling it both indoors and outside, and in fact the general subject covering the best and safest way for regulating the keeping, selling and delivering of gasoline, which is conceded to involve in its use some risk as to property and persons.

Your committee are aware that the subject is one of great importance to the city and that it is one which should be given the most careful consideration and that they feel that the question submitted to them was too limited in its scope for they feel that this whole matter should be referred to a committee or later be thoroughly investigated and some proper action be taken by the city council in the matter.

Your committee therefore ask to be relieved from making any specific report at this time and respectfully recommend: That this board appoint a committee to consider the whole matter outlined above and any other matter or thing incident to or connected with it and make full and complete investigation, taking the necessary time therefor, and report at some future meeting with such recommendations as they may deem advisable the city should take, having in view present conditions and probable future demands, for the keeping and the sale of gasoline, and also take into consideration where and how it should be kept and how it should be distributed, and what legislation is necessary to give the city power to act in the premises; and that pending such investigation and report, no formal action be taken at this time on the motion now before the board to order the removal of the gas pumps now existing on the sidewalks, but to allow no others to be placed thereon.

When the report had been read Alderman F. W. Baylies moved its adoption with the following resolution: "I move that the report and recommendation of the committee be accepted and adopted and the same continue to be continued; and that this action of the board be not be considered by any person owning or controlling any gasoline pumps in the city situated on the sidewalks as having any leave, license or suffrance from the city to continue the same thereon or in any manner as prejudicing the right of the city council to order and effect the removal of the same or any of them at any time."

Alderman Baylies also suggested that the report of the committee and the resolution as adopted be written into the city's records. His motion was carried without a dissenting vote so that the matter is still in the hands of the same committee.

James E. Mooney appeared at the meeting to complain against the gasoline pump at 12 North Winoski street. He stated that it had been there nine months and that it was a nuisance, not only to him but to the neighborhood. As it was a special meeting of the board, this particular matter could not be taken up and Mr. Mooney was advised to put his complaint into writing, get signatures to it for the removal of the pump and tank and tender it at a future meeting. The resolution passed to order the pump and tank, which are regarded as nuisances from the streets of the city.

PURITY GIVES POWER.

There are still many persons in the fact that the power the blood is the great is the power of the system to remove disease and the less the ability to contract it. Persons whose blood is in good condition are much less likely to take cold or to be long troubled with it, or to catch any contagious or infectious disease, than are those whose blood is impure and therefore impoverished and lacking in vitality. The best medicine for purifying the blood is Hood's Sarsaparilla, and persons suffering from any blood disease or any want of tone in the system are urged to give this medicine a trial. It is especially useful at this time of year. Adv.
